Farmers looking for a perfect seedbed are turning to the new Turbo-Max™ Vertical Tillage Tool from Great Plains. Hydraulic gang angle adjustment allows Turbo-Max to aggressively level the seedbed and remove weeds while its three and three-quarter inch overall blade spacing cuts and sizes residue without creating compaction. See the all-new Turbo-Max at (insert dealer name) in (insert city) today. Or visit them on the web at [www dot \(insert web address; spell out if necessary\) dot com](http://www.(insert web address; spell out if necessary).com). (Insert dealer name) and Great Plains.
